Roumania Now In The Struggle

The Fourteenth Nation Now Engaged in the Conflict

The first clashes between troops of Roumania and the Central Powers commenced on Sunday last in the southeastern and eastern frontier mountain passes of Hungary. Advance guards of the two forces came into contact at Rothenthurm Pass, 15 miles south of Hermannstadt, Transylvania, and in the passes south of Kronstadt.

Roumania becomes the fourteenth nation to join in the war. Her intervention either on the side of the Allies or the Central Powers has been awaited with symptoms of concern since the beginning of the war. Now that Roumania is on the side of the Allies, through the strategic advantages of her geographical position open to the Russian army a gateway to attack the Bulgarians from the north while the Allied army having its base at Saloniki can attack them and their German allies from the south. Roumania has a population of 8,000,000 and her army is estimated at about 800,000. It is believed that she has one of the most thoroughly equipped and disciplined armies in Europe.

Ladies Aid Hold Successful Concert

The grand Ladies Aid concert arranged by Miss Edna Irene Reed of Edmonton, on behalf of the above society, took place in the Methodist church on Thursday evening of last week. Rev. S. D. Webster very ably acted as chairman.

The concert opened with a pianoforte solo by Miss Mitchell, after which Miss Reed sang "The Holy City" in such a delightful manner that she had to respond to a vociferous recall. In the second part Miss Reed sang several numbers and on each occasion had to respond to an enthusiastic ovation.

Without very ably gave two readings, "Mona" and "God will Provide" were beautifully sung by Mrs. McCleod. Miss Gladys Walker very nicely recited "Be not in haste." In the second part of the programme, Miss White rendered wondrous and pianoforte solos both of which were highly appreciated.

"Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" and "Red White and Blue" were sung in a breezy manner by Rev. D. Simpson of Cereval. One of the highlights of the evening was the experiences of a "Bashful Man" by Rev. J. P. Mason of Chinook, who kept the audience in roars of laughter from start to finish. After a pianoforte duet by Miss Fisher and Miss Reed, the concert was brought to a successful close by the singing of the National Anthem. As a result the sum of $54.00 was handed over to the Ladies Aid society.

Oyen Agricultural Fair

Judge's Report on the Poultry Exhibits

The different classes, though just as numerous as last year, were rather disappointing in comparison to the exhibits of last year, as to quality and beauty of Standard bred poultry. To lovers of pure bred poultry, it would not give the pleasure anticipated, especially after the high-class exhibits of last year.

The directors of the exhibition are to be congratulated on the generosity of the prize list, forty-one prizes being offered, and only twelve and one special being awarded. Twenty-nine prizes awaiting exhibitors who failed to show up.

A little misunderstanding with the prize list, lost four prizes to those who did exhibit, through not entering in section 19 and 20 which were open to any breed.

At the next Fair it would be an accommodation for the judge, if the directors would appoint an experienced poultry man to assist the directors in charge to arrange the exhibits in their proper sections and in their respective classes, Asiatic, American, Mediterranean, English, and so on, this would facilitate the judging and add to the beauty of the poultry section.

Yours truly,
Felix Healey.

Turkeys Bronze—Two in class. Good large frame deep in body and full breast, but badly groomed. 1st prize.

Buff Turkeys, two in class. Fully up to standard in weight, but a little more bluish white is desirable in head, wings rather dark 1st prize.

There were no white turkeys exhibited so the prizes were given to the buff section.

Geese, 12 in class. As there were no separate classes for geese Embden and Toulouse were in competition; this was the best section of the poultry division and naturally the hardest one to judge.

1st prize Embden, good size, well set up and good plumage. 2nd prize Embden, good size, good plumage, points deducted for neck being short.

Ducks in two classes. 1st prize Pekin, rather small but good color and shape. 2nd prize cross bred Rouen.

White Leghorns 5 in class. As those exhibited in this class were undeveloped only second prize was awarded.

Black Minorcas 3 in class. 1st prize, cock, good shape, body well balanced, points deducted for under weight a little low, much red showing in ear lobe tail rather high.

Hen a splendid bird, good shape, good comb, rather low on legs. This hen was the best bird in show.

Barred Rocks 6 in class. 1st prize cock of good shape, fair plumage, points deducted for comb underweight. Hen disqualified.

2nd prize cock, not so large as first but a little better in comb and face, under color too light. Hen disqualified.

White Rock 2 in class. Cock good shape well up to standard in weight, and plumage good, but in poor health, points deducted for condition of comb and bad grooming.

Hen a good big bird with long body, heavy in moult, points deducted for comb and straight neck.

White Wyandottes 4 in class, only one prize awarded. 1st prize cock, good deep round body which was well balanced, points deducted for comb under weight. 11th disqualified, foreign color. No second prize was awarded birds undeveloped. There was no class for 1916 hatched fowls.

Buff Orpingtons.—Only a second prize was awarded. Owing to the inaccessibility of handling the birds, coops should be made with a door.

Cinema Victims

The problem of the picture palace is not wholly discerned with the effect of the scenes upon the minds of the spectators. A recent investigation in New York has led to some alarming disclosures respecting the risks run by children who pose for some of the films. Louis, aged six, who has been in the profession three years, in posing for one picture was rescued from a burning room, where she lay in a crib that was saturated with oil and set on fire. Margaret, aged nine while playing the part of a Russian child for one scenario, was suffocated and Cossicks robbed by and jumped over her. She was so frightened that the managers refused to allow her mother to be present. Quite young children have been forced to go out in snow; wearing only a nightgown or ragged dress—no shoes and stockings—and others have been kept in the river for half an hour on a bitterly cold day. A boy of twelve was put out in a boat instructions to pull out a plug in the bottom of it. He had to sink once before he was rescued.

In the same series of pictures he was carried on the back of a motor cycle which struck a rock throwing him violently into the water. As a result of this enquiry, the state of New York has passed a law restricting the employment of children for such purposes, and requiring forty-eight hours' previous notice of each application to be given to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Wavy Plains Women's Institute

The Wavy Plain Branch of the Women's Institute of Alberta held their monthly meeting on the 10th. of August at the home of Mrs. J. Othen.

The singing of the "Muple Leaf" opened the meeting. After the business was over a "How to make meetings more interesting" was read by Mrs. J. Othen. A recitation entitled "The Inventor's wife," was given by Majorie Bray.

Miss Caldwell, the president of an Ontario Branch of the Women's Institute gave a short sketch of the work done there; also a few hints on first aid.

The next meeting will be held on the 30th. of September, at the home of Mrs. Colley.

Dedication Of The Montifore Intitute

Grand Social and Dance

One of the largest and most enjoyable gatherings that has taken place in this locality for some time, was that which assembled on the afternoon and evening of the 17th. inst., the occasion being the dedication of the Montifore Intitute building. As early as two p.m. the people commenced to gather, and from then until four next morning the place was the scene of feasting and merry making.

The English Rabbi, Dr. Herbert J. Sauthain, B. A., of Winnipeg, who was to be master of ceremonies, was unable to be present owing to illness. A grand concert was given in which the following ladies and gentlemen took part:

Miss Minnie Dvarkin of Calgary, a Miss of twelve years, delighted the audience with her songs and dances; Mrs. Rosenberg, song; Miss Ida Ullman, song; Mrs. Chas. Wilson, song; also two Jewish songs by Mrs. Rosenberg; Mrs. Baker, recitation; Mr. W. Cawley, song; Mr. Jas. McGregor, of Sibbald, gave a recitation, which was appreciated by all. The songs and music rendered by Messrs. H. Ball and S. Cunningham of Sibbald, was of high class. A number of children from the University school assisted on the programme and did their parts well.

After the concert a very enjoyable dance was given and continued until the small hours of the morning. The most pleasing feature of the evening was to see so many of the old people who took an active part in the proceedings. Mr. Harry Oretsky very ably acted as chairman. The ladies of the district are to be congratulated for all the good things supplied by way of refreshments.

The Temple is a very fine and costly building and is quite a credit to the neighborhood, as well as been useful place for holding social and public meetings.

Obituary

Mr. F. C. McLean has received the sad news of the death of his only cousin, the Rev. Chas. McNeil, M.A., senior minister of the St. George's United Free Church, Dunfermline, Scotland, died on Saturday, August 24th, at his residence in South Norwood, London. Mr. McNeil, even before his retirement from the active duties of the ministry, seven years ago, suffered acutely from heart trouble, and he had since led a semi-invalid life; his death followed upon a serious operation, after an interval of three days.
